forms and uses

The possessive determiners serve to express ownership or possession (hence the name). They are also often called possessive adjectives because they agree in gender and number with the noun they introduce.

Masculine singular	Feminine singular	Plural	Translation
mon	ma	mes	my
ton	ta	tes	your (familiar)
son	sa	ses	his or her or its notre	notre	nos	our
votre	votre	vos	your (formal or plural)
leur	leur	leurs	their

Possessive articles, like all articles, must agree with the noun they modify. Thus, if the noun is feminine, the possessive article must be feminine, too. In the following example, the feminine noun famille requires a feminine form – sa. Note that sa has three potential translations in English: 'his,' 'her,' or 'its.' So, how do you know which meaning is intended? Context! Since the following example sentence refers to Tex, we know that sa means 'his.'

Tex présente sa famille: Voici mon frère, Trey, et ma soeur, Rita, avec ses enfants et leur chien Fido. Notre famille est formidable!

Tex introduces his family. Here is my brother, Trey, and my sister, Rita with her children and their dog Fido. Our family is great!

liaison

Do not forget to make the liaison between the plural forms of the possessive determiners and words that begin with a vowel sound. Ma, ta, sa become mon, ton, son in front of feminine nouns beginning with a vowel sound.

Tex continues his introductions:

Tex: Voici Tammy, mon amie, et ses amies. Bette et Fiona, c'est-à-dire nos amies.

Tex: Here is Tammy, my friend, and her friends, Bette and Fiona, that is to say, our friends.

Listen to the dialogue:

Tammy parle avec Bette: Tex n'est plus mon ami! Il a complètement oublié mon cadeau et notre anniversaire! Il a oublié toutes ses promesses! Quel nul!

Tammy is talking with Bette: Tex is not my friend any more! He completely forgot my present and our anniversary! He forgot all his promises. What a loser!
