

Negation is a grammatical term for the contradiction of some or all of the meaning of an affirmative (positive) sentence. In English, a sentence is commonly negated by inserting a single negative word (not, don't, didn't, won't, etc.) into the appropriate place in the sentence. In French, a sentence is commonly negated by inserting two words.

basic negation

Ne ... pas is placed around the conjugated verb to negate an affirmative sentence in French. Note that the ne changes to n' before a verb beginning with a vowel.

Joe-Bob, l'écureuil, court vite.

Edouard, l'escargot, ne court pas vite.

Trey aime le rap.

Joe-Bob n'aime pas le rap.

Joe-Bob, the squirrel, runs fast.

Edouard the snail doesn't run fast.

Trey likes rap.

Joe-Bob doesn't like rap.

TEX N'ÉCOUTE JAMAIS DE MUSIQUE COUNTRY

alternate forms of negation

There are many other French words that one can use to negate a positive statement besides the basic form ne ... pas. Moreover, negative words can be used to contradict the verb as well as other parts of the original affirmative sentence.

Joe-Bob écoute de la musique country.

Tex n'écoute jamais de musique country.

Trey n'écoute que du rap.

Fiona n'écoute rien.

Presque personne n'écoute de musique country en France.

Joe-Bob listens to country.

Tex never listens to country.

Trey only listens to rap.

Fiona listens to nothing.

Almost nobody listens to country music in France.
