Go online and search for information about the Arab League to share with your class. Look for information on when the League was founded, the founding countries, the dates the other Arab countries joined it, and a list of current members. Also, search for the summit meetings the Arab League has held and where these meetings were held.

Prepared by Professor Nader Morkus
University of Texas, Austin